Dear Residents and Families,

We received test results for three residents at Marjorie Lee who tested positive for COVID-19. One resident lives on the Berghamer Household, and the other two residents live on the Shaw Rehab Household. The households remain quarantined. The residents have mild symptoms to date.

One direct care staff member who works on our Memory Care Household at Episcopal Church Home tested positive for COVID-19 as well. The staff member is quarantining at home, and the household remain under quarantine. We also have one occurrence of symptoms to report at ECH. As a reminder, an occurrence is defined as three or more residents or staff with new-onset COVID-19 respiratory symptoms in 72 hours.

A resident at Canterbury Court went to the hospital with mild cold-like symptoms. They were tested at the hospital with a rapid test, and it was shared that they were positive for COVID-19. Canterbury Court remains under our restrictive guidelines for gathering. Additionally, we have scheduled a testing day in coordination with the local health department for Monday, December 7th.
