Dear Residents and Families,

We have several cases to report today in our CCRCs and Affordable Living Communities.

In Affordable Living, a staff member at Shawnee Place has tested positive for COVID-19 and is quarantining at home. In addition, two residents from Canterbury Court and one resident from Central Parkway Place have tested positive for COVID-19 and are quarantining at home. A resident from St. Paul Village has also tested positive for COVID-19 and remains hospitalized at this time.

At Episcopal Church Home, a non-direct care staff member has tested positive for COVID-19 and is quarantining at home.

At Deupree, a non-direct care staff member has also tested positive for COVID-19 and is quarantining at home. Also, there is occurrence of symptoms at Deupree. As a reminder, an occurrence is when three or more residents and/or staff have a new-onset COVID-19 respiratory symptoms in a 72-hour period.

At Marjorie Lee, two non-direct care staff members have tested positive for COVID-19 and are quarantining at home. Additionally, three direct care staff have tested positive for COVID-19 (Amstein, Romney, and Rehab) and are quarantining at home. There is also an occurrence of symptoms at Marjorie P. Lee.
