Dear Residents and Families,

In our Affordable Living Communities, a resident who lives at Cambridge Heights has tested positive for COVID-19 and is receiving care at the hospital. Additionally, three residents from Maple Knoll Meadows have also tested positive for COVID-19. Two of the residents are receiving care at the hospital and one is quarantining at this time. Finally, a resident who lives at Madison Villa has tested positive for COVID-19 and is quarantining in their apartment.

At Deupree House, a direct care staff member has tested positive for COVID-19 and is quarantining at home. A non-direct care staff member from Deupree House and Cottages has also tested positive for COVID-19 and is quarantining at home.

At Episcopal Church Home, a non-direct care staff member has tested positive for COVID-19 and is quarantining at home.

At Marjorie P. Lee, three non-direct care staff members have tested positive for COVID-19 and are quarantining at home.
