February 2020-Special Events

- 2 Sunday 5:30 Souper-bowl Sunday! We will enjoy homemade soups, sandwiches, and desserts as we watch football's biggest game of the season. Come root on your favorite team and enjoy some good food and drinks in the Event Center.
- 3 Monday 10:00 Join us for a card making class in the Victoria Courtyard Lounge. Kathy Hargis, our instructor, will guide us through making homemade cards.
- 7:00 The Cincinnati Art Museum Speakers Bureau will present a slide-show lecture "Flowers and More Flowers." This talk will explore how the floral motif has been depicted in art through the ages and from cultures around the globe. Discover the hidden symbols of flowers in art from the Western World, the Middle East, and Asia. The program will be held in the Event Center and broadcast on Channel 1851.
- 4 Tuesday 2:00 Blossom Smith, the Managing Librarian at the Hyde Park Branch Library, will be bringing us two new selections today when we meet in the Victoria Courtyard Lounge. In January Blossom brought the following titles: Two by Two by Nicholas Sparks and The Saints of Wolves and Butchers by Alex Grecian. If you have either of these books, please bring them to the meeting.
- 5 Wednesday 10:00 Today is National Weatherperson's Day! Today barring any significant weather events in Cincinnati we welcome Randi Rico, Meteorologist from WLWT Channel 5. Randi was born and raised in Mentor, Ohio just outside of Cleveland and was fascinated with weather. She went to Ohio University to study broadcast news and meteorology. After graduation she moved to Columbus, Mississippi and took graduate courses while working on the morning show at WCBI-TV. She holds both the American Meteorological Society and the National Weather Association's Seals of Approval. She returned to Ohio in 2004 working in Dayton for a period before joining Channel 5. Randi will give us a look at what it takes behind the scenes to give you your local weather reports. This Event will be held in the Event Center.

- 5:00 Today the Event Center is transformed into your local bowling Alley as we host a Wii Bowling Tournament. We sent out information in January and offered practice sessions to participate in our Wii bowling tournament. Tonight the teams that signed up will compete for coveted trophies and lots of fun! If you are not competing, please come and be a spectator of the event. We will have pizza, wings, popcorn, beer, and soda available as we bowl.

The book discussion group will meet in the Lee Library to discuss The Bankers Wife by Christina Alger. Summary: On an early morning in November, a couple boards a private plane bound for Geneva, flying into a storm. Soon after, it simply drops off the radar, and its wreckage is later uncovered in the Alps. Among the disappeared is Matthew Werner, a banking insider at Swiss United, a powerful offshore bank. His young widow, Annabel, is left grappling with the secrets he left behind, including an encrypted laptop and a shady client list. As she begins a desperate search for answers, she determines that Matthew's death was no accident, and that she is now in the crosshairs of his powerful enemies. Meanwhile, ambitious society journalist Marina Tourneau has finally landed at the top. Now that she's engaged to Grant Ellis, she will stop writing about powerful families and finally be a part of one. Her entry into the upper echelons of New York's social scene is more appealing than any article could ever be, but, after the death of her mentor, she agrees to dig into one more story. While looking into Swiss United, Marina uncovers information that implicates some of the most powerful men in the financial world, including a few who are too close to home. The story could also be the answer to Annabel's heartbreaking search—if Marina chooses to publish it. These books are available at the Tom Craig Reception Desk or by contacting Debbie MacLean at 533-5044 or dmaclean@erslife.org

Our Mardi Gras Party will be held this evening in the Event Center with music by Robin Lacy and DeZyedeco. We will have some light refreshments and open bar as we dance the night away.
