Cinema

February 2nd; Stagecoach: The Original (1939) John Ford's landmark Western revolves around an assorted group of colorful passengers aboard the Overland stagecoach bound for Lordsburg, New Mexico, in the 1880s. An alcoholic philosophizer (Thomas Mitchell), a lady of ill repute (Claire Trevor) and a timid liquor salesman (Donald Meek) are among the motley crew of travelers who must contend with an escaped outlaw, the Ringo Kid (John Wayne), and the ever-present threat of an Apache attack as they make their way across the Wild West. Length: 1hr 36 min

February 4th: The Monuments Men (2014) During World War II, the Nazis steal countless pieces of art and hide them away. Some over-the-hill art scholars, historians, architects and other experts form a unit to retrieve as many of the stolen masterpieces as possible. The mission becomes even more urgent when the team learns about Hitler's "Nero Decree," which orders destruction of the artworks if the Third Reich falls. Caught in a race against time, the men risk their lives to protect some of mankind's greatest achievements. Length: 1hr 58min

February 18th: The Princess Bride (1987) A fairy tale adventure about a beautiful young woman and her one true love. He must find her after a long separation and save her. They must battle the evils of the mythical kingdom of Florin to be reunited with each other. Based on the William Goldman novel "The Princess Bride" which earned its own loyal audience. Length: 1hr 38m

February 25th: The Devil & Daniel Webster (1941) Farmer Jabez Stone (James Craig), about to lose his land, agrees to sell his soul to the devil (Walter Huston), known as Mr. Scratch, who gives Jabez seven years to enjoy the fruits of his sale before he collects. Over that time, Jabez pays off his debts and helps many neighboring farmers, then becomes an advocate for the upstanding Sen. Daniel Webster (Edward Arnold). When Jabez's contract with Mr. Scratch concludes, he desperately turns to Webster to represent him in a trial for his soul. Length: 1hr 25m

Documentary

February 10th: Stories of a Generation with Pope Francis (Episode 1: Love) Martin Scorsese, Jane Goodall and others reflect on the power of love and the profound connections that have shaped their journeys. (Episode 2: Dream) A woman revisits her ancestor's past; an octogenarian skydiver and a climate science pioneer share their perspectives.

February 24th: Stories of a Generation with Pope Francis (Episode 3: Struggle) Perseverance helps a South African photographer, a surfing pioneer and the mother of a freedom fighter realize their life purposes. (Episode 4: Work) A shoemaker, 90, in Vietnam, a Nigerian artist and a celebrated chef in Jerusalem help to show the dignity and rewards of hard work.
