Documentary Descriptions – July 2021

Documentaries will be shown in the Event Center at 7:00 on Sundays.

Independence Day: The History of July 4th (2005)

Plot: Throughout America, the 4th of July is a summer celebration of beaches, barbecues and the birth of the nation, where parades march down Main Street and the night sky lights up with stunning fireworks displays. But how did these traditions begin? From Continental Congress to the explosion of light up in the skies nationwide. THE HISTORY CHANNEL presents an affectionate look at Independence Day. Journey back to the very first celebration in Philadelphia on July 8, 1776 when the Declaration of Independence was read to the citizens and the city bells rang in a proclamation of freedom. Though these humble beginnings would eventually become the all-out festival of today, Independence Day wasn't legally declared a holiday until 1941!
