

November 2018- Special Events

- | | | | |
|----------|-----------------|--------------|---|
| 1 | Thursday | 10:30 | Today we will celebrate All Saints Day with a special All Saints Morning Prayer Service in the Chapel. |
| | | 3:00 | Writing Our Memoirs group will meet in the Conference Room this afternoon. |
| 2 | Friday | 3:00 | Residents Meeting will be held in the Event Center this afternoon. This meeting is designed to keep you informed of the latest happenings within the Marjorie P. Lee Community. |
| 3 | Saturday | | Remember to set your clocks back 1 hour this evening before you go to bed. |
| 5 | Monday | 9:00 | This morning we will depart for a tour of the St. Peter in Chains Cathedral and Museum from the Victoria Lobby. Saint Peter in Chains Cathedral is the cathedral of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Cincinnati. It is a Greek Revival structure located at 8th and Plum Streets in downtown Cincinnati. The cornerstone of Saint Peter in Chains was laid on May 20, 1841, under the direction of then-bishop and later archbishop, John Baptist Purcell, and formally dedicated on November 2, 1845. Its striking single spire, which soars 220 feet above street level, was the tallest man-made structure in the city for many decades. The interior of Saint Peter in Chains is distinctly unique among Roman Catholic cathedrals in America, with its Greek-themed mosaics depicting the Stations of the Cross, its ornate Corinthian columns and its massive bronze doors. Please be sure to sign up in the Transportation Sign-up book to reserve your spot on the tour. |
| | | 7:00 | Piano Player & Singer Mike Pendell will be in the Event Center this evening to entertain us with a variety of | music. Mike loves requests so be sure to request your favorite song.

6 Tuesday

Today is Election Day. The Lee Library is the Polling Place for residents who are registered voters and living here at Marjorie P. Lee. Please remember to bring a current ID with you to vote. Acceptable identification includes any ONE of the following: •A current (not expired) and valid photo identification card issued by the State of Ohio or the U.S. government (includes Ohio Driver License or Ohio ID Card); or •A current (not expired) military identification ('military ID'); or •A current* utility bill (includes cell phone bill), an original or copy; or •A current* bank statement, an original or copy; or •A current* government check, an original or copy; or •A current* paycheck, an original or copy; or •A current* other government document, an original or copy.

*dated within last 12 months and shows voter's name and current address.does NOT include a voter registration acknowledgement notification mailed by the board of elections. A voter presenting an Ohio driver license or Ohio ID card that shows voter's former address is permitted to cast a regular ballot so long as the voter's current residential address is printed in the official poll list of registered voters for that precinct. Voters who do not provide any ONE of these documents at the precinct will still be able to voter using a provisional ballot. Voters who do not have any of the above forms of identification, including a Social Security number, will still be able to vote by signing an affirmation statement swearing to the voter's identity under penalty of election falsification and casting a provisional ballot.

8:00am-6:00pm

We will be hosting a bake sale in the Tom Craig Lobby today. Stop down to make a purchase or donate some time by working the booth. Contact Mary Sheldon at msheldon@erslife.org or by calling 533-5043

9 Friday

Today we will celebrate our Marjorie P. Lee Veteran's and listen to a presentation about Greater Cincinnati

Veteran's memorials. The Cincinnati Heritage Program docent will take us on a patriotic tour of Veterans' memorials located in the Hamilton County area. The program describes memorials and tributes to military personnel from the Cincinnati area and includes a brief history of each memorial. The time span covers two centuries, from the Revolutionary War to the Gulf War.

- 11 Sunday 3:00 Nancy Palm will be in the Victoria Lobby to assist with mending for anyone who may be in need of help or a friendly chat.
- 3:30 Pianist Bob Pollack will be providing an hour of music in the Chapel this afternoon. Bob plays music from the American Songbook and often has stories about the singers and songwriters that made them famous.
- 12 Monday 7:00 We will have a program by Violinist Vincent Phalen and pianist Dasom Kwon in the Chapel this evening.
- 13 Tuesday 5:00 We will depart for dinner at Chez Renee located in historic Milford, Ohio. In February of 2018 Cincinnati Magazine gave Chez Renee a spot in their Top 10 Best New Restaurants in Cincinnati. Writing: "For anyone who has ever found French food pretentious or intimidating, Chez Renée is a lovely corrective, and one that perfectly suits its location on Milford's Main Street. The casual, family vibe is unmistakable, with instructions shouted back and forth between the servers and the kitchen. The chef, Laurent Degois, often comes out to chat with diners." Please be sure to sign up in the Transportation Sign-up book if you plan to join us for this outing no later than Friday, November 9th.
- 14 Wednesday 7:00 Diane Shields will be in the Event Center to share a slide show lecture on "The Alamo." Diane is a former teacher who brings historical events and figures come to life during her presentations.
- 17 Saturday 10:00 We will depart for Robin Imaging Services: The Mohawk Gallery to see the exhibition "Reveal." Reveal investigates how the order and display of images can make previously unknown (or secret information) known to others. Featuring five artists exploring how photographs—originally intended to tell one story—can be altered by their presentation to reveal another story. The artists expose an intended story, in a specifically designated space, to show how one image can stand on its own or how it “collaborates” with its surroundings to present other revelations. The photographs, when installed together, create an entirely new story presented as part of a larger context. The images compel viewers to interpret the intended story and explore what lies behind the intent. What emotions, ideas, or goals do they project? Does the state of the physical environment matter? Reveal encourages the collection, sorting, and organization of information from the images, and the creation of an individual narrative based on new contexts. Featured Artists: Sue Milinkovich, Steven Miller, Greg Rust, Jerry Stratton, Dan Wheeler. Please sign up in the Transportation Sign-up book located in the Victoria Lobby.

| 19 Monday | 7:00 | We welcome a C.C. M. Student Artist this evening to the Marjorie P. Lee Chapel. The CCM student artist program allows current College Conservatory of Music students at the University of Cincinnati to enhance their performance skills while providing us with a varied repertoire of music and musicians. |
| 21 Wednesday | 10:30 | We will have a Thanksgiving Service in the Chapel this morning. |
| 22 Thursday | | Happy Thanksgiving! |
| 23 Friday | 2:30 | Join us in the Event Center for a program on the life and Music of Scott Joplin. |
| 27 Tuesday | 5:00 | We will depart for dinner at Postmark Restaurant located in Clifton. Another of Cincinnati Magazines Top 10 New Restaurants. The reviewer wrote: “Located in a spot in Clifton that had started to feel a little cursed, with a | progression of restaurants that didn't last long, Postmark has settled in like it belongs there. And it does—the food is so good that it's unlikely to be leaving anytime soon. This is chef/owner Brad Bernstein's second restaurant, after Red Feather in Oakley, and the years of experience have served him well. Everything at Postmark hums with confidence, no new-restaurant hiccups in sight. Service is friendly and assured, from wine recommendations to the pacing of the meal; one perfectly executed little plate follows another, from spicy-sweet Brussels sprouts roasted with ribbons of pig's ear to white corn agnolotti surrounded by meaty little fans of maitake mushrooms.” Please be sure to sign up in the Transportation Sign-up book if you plan to join us for this outing no later than Friday, November 23rd.

Please welcome Cecilia Cozzi, Phd student at the University of Cincinnati in the Classics Department. Tonight's program is titled, Madness, Love and Passion: Female Characters in Greek Myth. We usually associate Greek mythology with the astonishing exploits of heroes, such as Achilles, Jason, or Hercules. What about the women? Greek society often left them in the background, in a secondary position as wives and daughters. But the women of mythology are a different story. They seize active roles and receive a prominence that women seldom experienced in real life. However, by doing this, they go against one of their most important obligations: live quietly and stay inside the house. Through this presentation, we will focus on three women whose strong agency and determination mark them out as sinister to the Greek imagination and yet somewhat heroic to ours. Medea, the sorcerer who left her homeland because of love; Antigone, the girl who sacrificed herself on behalf of her family; and Phaedra, the woman who died because of an insane passion. Together we will explore the stories of these women and investigate what they can tell us about being a woman in Ancient Greece in a man's world.
