

Movie Descriptions – October 2019

Saturdays at 7:00pm in Event Center (unless noted)

Reshown on Channel 2 the following day at 12:30 pm, 7:00 pm, and 10:30 pm

Age of Adaline (2015)

Stars: Blake Lively, Michiel Huisman, Harrison Ford

Ford

Plot: Adaline Bowman has miraculously remained a youthful 29 years of age for nearly eight decades, never allowing herself to get close to anyone lest they discover her secret. However, a chance encounter with a charismatic philanthropist named Ellis Jones reawakens Adaline's long-suppressed passion for life and romance. When a weekend with Ellis' parents threatens to expose the truth, Adaline makes a decision that changes her life forever.

Date: Tuesday, October 1st

Rated: PG-13

Run Time: 112

Minutes

Stan and Ollie (2018)

Stars: Steve Coogan, John C. Reilly, Shirley Henderson

Henderson

Plot: Laurel and Hardy – the world's greatest comedy team – face an uncertain future as their golden era of Hollywood films remain long behind them. Diminished by age, the duo set out to reconnect with their adoring fans by touring variety halls in Britain in 1953. The shows become an instant hit, but Stan and Ollie can't quite shake the past as long-buried tension and Hardy's failing health start to threaten their precious partnership.

Date: Saturday, October 5th

Rated: PG

Run Time: 98

Minutes

The Iron Lady (2011)

Stars: Meryl Streep, Jim Broadbent, Richard E. Grant

Plot: In her twilight years former Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher reflects on her life and career as she finally prepares to dispose of the belongings of her late husband Denis. Daughter of a Grantham grocer, she successfully broke through a double-paned glass ceiling of gender and class. Thatcher became the first female prime minister of the United Kingdom and remained as such for 11 consecutive years, until declining popularity forced her to resign.

Date: Saturday, October 12th

Rated: PG-13

Run Time: 105 Minutes

Pavarotti (2019)

Stars: Spike Lee, Bono, Princess Diana

Plot: Featuring never-before-seen footage, concert performances and intimate interviews, filmmaker Ron Howard examines the life and career of famed opera tenor Luciano Pavarotti.

Date: Saturday, October 19th

Rated: PG-13

Run Time: 105 Minutes

The Queen (2006)

Stars: Helen Mirren, Michael Sheen, James Cromwell

Plot: In the wake of a national tragedy the prime minister and royal family find themselves quietly at odds. The initial reluctance of Buckingham Palace to mourn Diana is seen by the public as a sign of cool emotional distance, but Tony Blair, perceiving a potential public-relations disaster in the making, takes it upon himself to persuade Queen Elizabeth to pay tribute to the dead princess.

Date: Saturday, October 26th

Rated: PG-13

Run Time: 103 Minutes

The Witches of Eastwick (1987)

Stars: Cher, Susan Sarandon, Michelle

Pfeiffer

Plot: Three small-town friends, Alexandra, Jane, and Sukie, each having lost the man in their lives, are feeling unfulfilled – until a furtive stranger, Daryl Van Horne, arrives and begins courting each of them in turn. Eventually Daryl tells them that they are witches, but as the three friends spend more time at his mansion, enjoying themselves and learning about their powers, they begin to worry about Daryl's ultimate intentions.

Date: Wednesday, October 30th

Rated: R

Run Time: 118 Minutes

Documentary Films – October 2019

Sundays at 7:00pm in Event Center (unless noted)

Reshown on Channel 2 the following day at 1:00, 7:00, and 10:30p.m. (unless noted)

Title: The Biggest Little Farm

Description: This documentary chronicles the eight-year quest of John and Molly Chester as they trade city living for 200 acres of barren farmland and a dream to harvest in harmony with nature. Through dogged perseverance and embracing the opportunity provided by nature's conflicts, the Chesters unlock and uncover a biodiverse design for living that exists far beyond their farm, its seasons, and our wildest imagination.

Shown: Sunday, October 6th

Run Time: 91

Minutes

Title: Hurricanes

Description: Their fury can stretch across a landmass of more than 600 miles, bringing with them winds of up to 155 miles per hour. They can put islands underwater, level thriving cities, and indiscriminately kill thousands of people. While only one or two hurricanes hit American soil each year, when they do, the repercussions are extraordinary. Widespread panic and the staggering loss of life and property are often among some of the most devastating consequences of these remarkable forces of nature.

Shown: Sunday, October 13th

Run Time: 50

Minutes

Title: Direct from the Moon

Description: Nearly 40 years after Apollo astronauts Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin enthralled the nation when they became the first men to land on the moon, lunar exploration has returned to the headlines as new information is being uncovered about the birth of our solar system. With stunning footage from the Kaguya lunar orbiter, this documentary reveals images of the moon and Earth in spectacular detail like never seen before.

Shown: Sunday, October 20th

Run Time: 50

Minutes

Title: The Kennedys: Part One

Description: In the proud history of this nation there are a few names as instantly recognizable as those of the Kennedys. For generations this dynasty of politicians, public servants, and powerbrokers has sat at the top table of American politics, living life in the spotlight amid the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune. Part one of this landmark documentary explores the building of the Kennedy legend. It was Joseph P. Kennedy, the ultimate father figure in the most powerful of families, who instilled in his sons the competitive instinct and belief required to become great leaders. Using his significant influence and wealth, he opened doors and pulled strings, paving the road for their successes, but ultimately he endured the tragedy of witnessing so much of what he and the family had worked towards be destroyed by assassins' bullets.

Shown: Sunday, October 27th

Run Time: 110

Minutes