Cinema

May 4: Coda (2021) Ruby is the only hearing member of a deaf family from Gloucester, Massachusetts. At 17, she works mornings before school to help her parents and brother keep their fishing business afloat. But in joining her high school's choir club, Ruby finds herself drawn to both her duet partner and her latent passion for singing. Length: 1hr 51m

May 6 & 7: La Bamba (1987) Los Angeles teenager Ritchie Valens (Lou Diamond Phillips) becomes an overnight rock 'n' roll success in 1958, thanks to a love ballad called "Donna" that he wrote for his girlfriend (Danielle von Zerneke) whose parents didn't want her to date a Latino boy. But as his star rises, Valens has conflicts with his jealous brother, Bob (Esai Morales), and becomes haunted by a recurring nightmare of a plane crash just as he begins his first national tour alongside Buddy Holly (Marshall Crenshaw). Length: 1hr 48m

May 13 & 14: The Gangs All Here (1943) The night before his deployment in World War II, wealthy heir Andy Mason (James Ellison) falls in love with Eadie (Alice Faye), a beautiful cabaret singer. The two hit it off, but Mason fails to reveal the fact that he has already promised to marry Vivian (Sheila Ryan), a family friend. When he returns from the war a hero, his father throws a huge party for him, hiring Eadie and her company to perform. Mason hopes to find an out with Vivian in order to marry his true love. Length: 1hr. 43m

May 18: West Side Story (2021) Love at first sight strikes when young Tony spots Maria at a high school dance in 1957 New York City. Their burgeoning romance helps to fuel the fire between the warring Jets and Sharks -- two rival gangs vying for control of the streets. Length: 2 hr. 6min

May 20 & 21: Playtime (1967) Clumsy Monsieur Hulot (Jacques Tati) finds himself perplexed by the intimidating complexity of a gadget-filled Paris. He attempts to meet with a business contact but soon becomes lost. His roundabout journey parallels that of an American tourist (Barbara Dennek), and as they weave through the inventive urban environment, they intermittently meet, developing an interest in one another. They eventually get together at a chaotic restaurant, along with several other quirky characters. Length: 1 hr 43 min

May 27 & 28: Sunset Boulevard (1950) An aging silent film queen refuses to accept that her stardom has ended. She hires a young screenwriter to help set up her movie comeback. The screenwriter believes he can manipulate her, but he soon finds out he is wrong. The screenwriters ambivalence about their relationship and her unwillingness to let go leads to a situation of violence, madness, and death. Length: 1hr 55m

Monday's Great Music of the 20th Century Class Travel into the lives of the great 20th-century composers and immerse yourself in the era's sublime musical masterworks.

Thursday Saint of the Day with Deacon William Sangrey: A bible study where the chosen lectionary passage is based on the readings for Lesser Feast and Fasts of the liturgical calendar.

Book Club (May 10th) Join your neighbors for a discussion of this month's read, The Engineers Wife
By: Tracey Enerson Wood

Coffee & Conversation (May 12) Join the ERS servant leadership team as they discuss what is happening within ERS.

Vincent Phelan (May 17) Join violinist Vince Phelan for a concert after dinner.

Cincinnati Heritage Program: Northside (May 24): Cincinnati's oldest suburb was first settled by pioneer surveyor Israel Ludlow who built the first blockhouse on this land which was soon followed by other settlers. The neighborhood developed into a transportation, retail and industrial center as well as the home for wealthy Cincinnatians. Having suffered a decline after World War II, Northside is emerging as a revitalized eclectic community.

Interview with Jack Williams & Wally Macaulay (May 31): Join John Srofe as he interviews Jack & Wally on their time in the service and their 100 years of life.
