Featuring
Kathryn Spink,
authorized biographer
of Mother Teresa
"Saint of Calcutta"

Parish Health Ministry Refresh Your Soul 2019

Living Well with Purpose

Living with Meaning and Purpose

By tracing the life and work of the “Saint of Calcutta”, her authorized biographer will explore what made her care of the poor, the sick and the dying so exceptional – the priority she gave to dedication, compassion, respect for difference, and being humbly and fully present to the individual; her identification of the need to meet emotional and spiritual problems, and her emphasis not so much on prolonging life at all costs, as on enabling people to die with dignity and surrounded by love. Doing “small things with great love” was a transforming principle that gave meaning and purpose to her life and one she stressed was accessible to all.

About Keynote Kathryn Spink

As the authorized biographer of Mother Teresa, Kathryn was involved with her work for over seventeen years, and her highly acclaimed biography of the “Saint of Calcutta” became a New York Times best-seller. She has spoken internationally including an address at the United Nations conference in 2016.

Food as Medicine

Interactive teaching kitchens and food-first nutrition education are the future of medicine. The growing field of Culinary Medicine and its improved patient health outcomes will be explored. Learn about the Mediterranean Diet, an important building block of Culinary Medicine, and groundbreaking research in this field.

About Leah Sarris, RD, LDN

Leah is the Director of Operations and Executive Chef for the Goldring Center for Culinary Medicine in New Orleans. She has developed a premier, interdisciplinary program that involves culinary arts, science, nutrition and medicine. It is the first of its kind and has been licensed by many medical schools. Her passion lies in teaching everyone how to make delicious food that is also good for them.

The Purpose of Life is a Life of Purpose

Every farmer knows that it is not about the number of barns you build, but about the seeds you plant; every parent knows it is not about the number of times you push the swing, but about how your child soars when they leave your playground. So it is with our lives. When the purpose of life is a life of purpose, the integration of spirit, heart, hands and mind finds its greatest completion.

About Rabbi Abie Ingber

Rabbi Ingber is the founder and former Executive Director of the Center for Interfaith Community Engagement at Xavier University. He is passionate about using the lessons learned from his parents’ survival of the Holocaust to promote peace and healing throughout the world.

Aging with Zest and Vigor

It’s a well-documented fact that people who manage their stress, maintain an optimistic spirit and take care of their health are happier and healthier than those who don’t. In our frenzied world, folks need to be reminded of why these things are vitally important. Kay Frances will share ways to cope with stress and leave you laughing and enlightened on how to age with zest and vigor.

About Kay Frances

Motivational humorist and author, Kay Frances, has shared her message in 49 states and Canada for over 30 years. She has an MBA and a 4th-degree black belt in karate. Her experience as a family caregiver taught her valuable lessons and inspires much of her work.
